toms of market garden and other produce now wasted, which would form a supply of the most luscious commissariat for the bunnies. Indeed, they make out a strong case for their enterprise, and show satisfactorily that the rabbit in England "has a great future before him," Ground Game Acts notwithstanding.

I hear to-day that the Grand Duke of Hesse has ordered the immediate release of the English youth, whom I wrote of above. Unfortunately the boy was incarcerated five days before Her Majesty's representative could lay the case before the Prince and receive a favorable reply.

There was a general feeling of relief and satisfaction in town yesterday on the receipt of the news of the storming of Tel-et-kebir. Sir Garnet can now fill up "vici" in his dispatch, and all the murmurs of the Clubs will be silenced. He has played the Fabian policy admirably, the bill he gave payable on the 15th September, the date fixed for Arabi's discomfiture, having been taken up two days before its time. So much for the croakings about the signal failure a short service army would make under a tea-drinking general. The United Service Club will have to go into mourning.
